

SAYING YES TO OPPORTUNITY

When it comes to exploring new opportunities, coming up with excuses to NOT pursue something is often the default. Maybe you're too busy. Maybe the timing's not great. Maybe the opportunity isn't exactly what you had in mind.

But allowing yourself to say "yes" to imperfect opportunities can sometimes deliver unexpected benefits. You might discover a new side project. You might rekindle one of your talents. You might even uncover a new career path.

This worksheet is intended to help you clarify what COULD happen if you say yes to exploring an idea that's been lingering in the back of your mind. If you see the glass half-full instead of half-empty.

The idea I'm considering...

1

What's appealing about doing this?

2

Why's the opportunity not quite right?

3

How could I benefit if I pursued it anyway?

4

What's the worst that could happen?

5

What's the best that could happen?

I hope reflecting on these questions can provide you with some clarity on whether to make the leap. Good luck!
